Ron Glown, Kim Levin : Glass: Material in the Service of Meaning before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Glass: Material in the Service of Meaning:

Catalog from an exhibit at the Tacoma Art Museum in Washington of artists who work with glass as a medium. How did they use it, and what does it mean? Artists include Nancy Bowen, Mark Calderon, Mel Chin, Laddie John Dill, Denorah Dohne, Kate Ericson, and many others in alphabetical order. There is a short bio of each artist and a statement or analysis of the piece of sculpture. Important addition to collection of gallery catalogs.
