Fabulous - doing one that is ALL paper-pieced looking amazingBy SandyTMaking one of the quilts - all foundation piecing finding Kaffe's suggestions very helpful my quilt top is looking fabulous! Will post a picture when it is finished. Recommend if you like Kaffe's bold bright colors. I'm making a monochromatic quilt as a guild challenge.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Shot Cloth Crazy SquaresBy Debbie LThanks to a recent reviewer for mentioning the Crazy Squares pattern being in Kaffe Fassett's Glorious Patchwork. I too was on an internet search for the pattern source, had a clue it was in one of his books ~ Voila, et merci!A bonus: this book is already on my shelf. The kitted Crazy Squares Table Runner I've seen online is made combining Westminster shot cloth solids with woven stripes, cross-cut ~ a presentation more visually dynamic and inspiring than the exemplar photographed in the book. Surprising, considering that after perusing images in Kaffe's books one is likely to dream in technicolor! Many Kaffe Fassett Collective fabrics, particularly the shot cloth and woven stripes, seem to be perpetually available ~ and also can be found in my overabundant fabric stash. So nothing now except time and resolve standing in the way of making this table runner! 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. .com Glorious Patchwork represents yet another craft breakthrough for Kaffe Fassett, who has fearlessly conquered the worlds of color knitting, needlepoint, and rug hooking. Here he teams up with quilt designer Liza Prior Lucy to produce a series of color-drenched patchwork designs that have a powerful impact and a subtle, pleasing symmetry. Fassett's text is chattier and more interesting than in his previous works; he is more capable of communicating the inspiration he finds in the natural patterns that the rest of us hardly notice.
