Even though there is an adult on the cover it clearly is written at the 7th grade level of comprehension. Thankfully I paid more for shipping than the book itself. I would not have ordered this had I known a bit more about the actual contents. I would not recommend this to someone looking to create handmade greeting cards in the 21st century...unless they wanted a lesson in paper origami for their 11 year old. 15 of 15 people found the following review helpful. Awesome--Includes everything! By Military Brat This set is fantastic! The book includes instructions on how to make the following types of cards: 2 types of flowers, square, origami, purse, caterpillar, and pop-up (and a few others). It also shows you how to make a small box with lid and 2 types of envelopes. Included in the kit are plastic templates for all of the cards and envelopes (9 or so). Then there are templates for several flowers and a wrap-around bow. Not to mention the measuring guide (8 x 12 inches), the scorer and folding tool in one, and the 12 pieces of 8 1/2 x 12 cardstock and 10 pieces of paper. The card ideas alone are wonderful (easy and pretty), but the templates put this set over the top. The only improvement I can suggest is that the plastic is really flexible. I wouldn't have minded paying a little more for slightly sturdier plastic, since I plan on using the templates a lot! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Daughters Love This Book By K. Sargent Bought for my 11 year-old daughter. Both she and her 13 year old sister really enjoy all the ideas in the book. There are cards that are out of the ordinary, yet simple to make. It opens up their creative minds and gives them something to do on a quiet day. It's hard to go wrong with Klutz.

Send a greeting that's uniquely you. This beautiful book of instruction comes packaged with a generous portfolio of paper in a variety of colors, patterns and weights, along with special tools like a measuring grid and reusable plastic templates. Just follow the simple directions to fashion your own one-of-a-kind cards and envelopes. Be sure to send them to someone very special, though, because a handmade card is not just a card, it's more like a gift.
