From Brand: Hobby House Pr Inc : Hat Making for Dolls 1855 -1916 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hat Making for Dolls 1855 -1916:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Not what I expectedBy Cindy HeilmanI expected a book. This is not much more than a pamphlet. Several pages have micro-mini print that appears as a xerox copy from another source. Haven't really gone into the text yet. I'll need a magnifying glass to do that.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy carol marie morrisonmuch to complicated for me but great pics.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Good illustrationsBy CJGood illustrations, but the patterns were not to scale and required enlarging to be useful. The styling tips for bonnets were wonderful and very helpful for an experienced seamstress. Lots of ideas for bonnet shapes and decorations.

Contains 29 doll hat patterns for complementing your antique doll's outfit. Patterns, many by Sandy Williams, are accompanied with helpful instructions, suggestions and millinery hints. 85 b/w photographs. 32 pages.

From the Back Cover This book contains a rich variety of 18 doll patterns with instructions sure to aid the doll's hat maker in creating mid-19th century to early-20th century hats. That hat maker will find many illustrations with helpful hints and suggestions. Also included are additional illustrations and descriptions representative of children's and adult's hats which can be utilized by hat makers to trim and make their own period millinery. Edited by Clare Blau.
