At the time, Cross Stitch magazine produced these patterns and I was charmed from the first pattern issued. I DID finish 3 stockings and still fill them today for my 3 adult children, ages 30, 28 26...LOL. I actually bought this as a gift for my daughter, who wants to make the same kind of stockings for her family, her daughter is one. Now, we'll have the whole series! The supplier got it to me in three days, eventhough 's estimate was 10-14 days. These ARE by far the best Cross Stitch stocking patterns I've ever seen and I've looked a lot for my daughter, both on-line and in stores around town.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. SO Thrilled To Have Purchased This Book At A Bargain thru !By marstakOriginally created the Holiday Study stocking from an issue of Cross Stitch Country Crafts Magazine in 2000 for an elderly relative. After his death, recycled it for a young train lover by picking out the original name and re-naming it. Now, I have grandbabies and stepchildren for whom I need stockings.Looking forward to creating the Sugar and Spice, Toys and Games, Home For the Holidays, and North Woods stockings for our new additions. If you can find this book, JUMP on it! It's SO fabulous! I feel SO fortunate to have purchased it for $6 on . I'm not certain, but I believe I spent more than $6 for the one magazine I purchased in 2000. This book is a GEM!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great Book - Love the designsBy M. AukenI was once a subscriber to Cross Stitch Country Crafts magazine. I always looked forward to the Holiday stocking issue and had hopes of getting the time to do them when my kids were a bit older. Then time stepped in and during numerous moves I lost the magazines. To find they have a book with the designs was a pleasant surprise and the price could not be beat. It arrived quickly. Now if I just had some extra hours in my day to get a few of the designs stitched.
