I absolutely love this book, the quilts are pretty simple or they have strip quilts in the book and or squares that even a novice like myself can do without too much problem, I have not done applique in years but with the lovely quilts I am going to go for it, this book has more than one quilt that I plan to make, I really like this book so much that I plan to order "Tis the Season", by the same ladies, looking forward to making the quilt shown on the front of the book and one with deer on the inside so cute. The book has so many quilts that appeal to someone that is not into complex designs and therefore I know that I will use this book more than others I have received. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great projects! By reader geek Many thanks for your prompt delivery! I plan to make several projects from this book for the next winter season! 0

This book has many variations of the same quilt (e.g., a lap quilt made into a table topper, made into a tree skirt). Instructions clear and easy to understand.Their other book, 'Tis the Season has more Christmas themed quilts, where as this book has quilts that can be displayed through the new year.

Jeanne and Shelley from The Quilt Patch in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan have been busy designing 19 wonderful projects for their latest book. These whimsical modern-country designs are sure to delight and warm the heart - yet another best seller from these Canadian gals! --Quilter's Connection Magazine, Summer 2014Shelley Wicks and Jeanne Large own and operate The Quilt Patch retail store in Moose Jaw, SK. In their new book, Here Comes Winter, there are 19 projects that range from pillows to table runners, to lap quilts and wall hangings. I love their projects because they are very do-able and have a fun kind of charm to the style. Also, since they aren't really labor intensive - you might consider making one or more projects... as gifts! The projects also range in style - there is whimsical, dramatic and just fun! --Sinta Borland, Pink Pincushion Blog, June 2014About the AuthorJeanne learned to sew as a young girl from her mom and her Auntie Alice. She grew up sewing garments for herself, and then moved on to sewing for her five children, often creating something original and unique. Quilting was a natural progression from garment sewing and continues to fill a need to create. Time to spend on other hobbies, such as basket weaving and woodworking, is becoming rarer as the number of grandchildren grows and work commitments increase. However, there is always time to sew.Shelley has been quilting for well over 20 years, having started when "quilting wasn't cool!" Both her grandmothers quilted in different styles and each passed on her knowledge and love of quilting. Shelley lives in beautiful Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada. When she's not busy designing, quilting, working at The Quilt Patch, or walking a trade show, she enjoys shopping, home decorating, reading, and if there's still time left over, working in her yard.
