This cookbook is filled with delicious recipes and great ideas for celebrating the holidays at home. If you're buying this used just beware that the spiral spine is fragile and can arrive damaged. I bought mine used--it was listed as very good--and I had to super glue one of the bottom rings of the spine because it had snapped during shipping. That's not the fault of the book though....just whoever I purchased from.Overall this is a quality cookbook that's sure to become a family keepsake.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. If you're a real gung ho Christmas person you might like this book. However, if you already own a lot of Gooseberry Patch books (like I do) you may be disappointed. There are lots of repeated ideas and recipes. Maybe not exactly the same but extremely similar to those in other Gooseberry Patch books. Be cautious if you're a collector.

Most enjoyable for me are the traditions and country ideas that my fellow "country folk" share. I am sad to tell you, though, that I don't like sharing my Gooseberry Patch books with anyone! My reason is simple and purely selfish... people take too long to return them! I have begun encouraging them to get their own! - Shirley Young, Jersey Shore, PA I read my Gooseberry Patch books over and over and they speak to me of gentleness and good times, and somehow always bring thoughts of my precious grandma. I used to think I had the privilege of having the most wonderful grandmother in the world, but your books tell me the world is filled with loving grandmothers. I shall try to be one myself. Thank you for that. - Peggy Tully, Sulphur Springs, TX I bought my first Gooseberry Patch book, Coming Home for Christmas, before Thanksgiving. I can't begin to tell you how much I have enjoyed it. My daughter Brandy, who is 17, and I used several suggestions from it to help make our Christmas very special and a memory we both will cherish. Thank you for creating something that has brought so much enjoyment to so many people. - Maxine Blakely, Seneca, SC From the Back Cover Dear Friend, It's the most festive time of the year... and what better way to celebrate than spending the holidays at home!
