Review to "How to Make Enchanting Miniature Teddy Bears" By Inga Talvis "How to Make Enchanting Miniature Teddy Bears" by Debbie Kesling is a really good book both for beginners as well as advanced makers. It certainly exceeded my expectations. Projects are adorable and tempting starting with easier ones and moving on to trickier advanced projects. Craftsmanship is excellent but does not make you discouraged. Wonderful and enjoyable to browse and search for inspiration, practical and usable to start crafting. To me therefore excellent! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The book is very clear on making these bears. ... By Baj The book is very clear on making these bears. From Library Journal Miniature teddy bears standing only three inches high are a recent entry in the world of collectible stuffed toys. They are made, exhibited, and sold in a relatively closed world of aficionados and command prices that seem astounding to outsiders. Kesling, a professional bear-maker, creates her own designs and devises original techniques for solving construction problems that come with miniaturization. In this delightful book, she has ten fully illustrated, step-by-step projects for bears and one bunny, along with information on going into business as a bear-maker. Copyright 1997 Reed Business Information, Inc. About the Author Debbie Kesling began making bears in 1983. Her work has been featured on the cover of Teddy Bear magazine and in many other books and periodicals. She has also been awarded a Golden Teddy for her miniature designs. Her instructional video, 'Secrets of Miniature Artistry', has sold thousands of copies worldwide since its 1994 release. Debbie has been honoured to be an artist invited to participate in the Walt Disney World and Disneyland Teddy Bear Conventions. Some of her miniature designs have been produced by 'Little Gems'. As a regular contributor to Teddy Bear and Friend magazine, Debbie writes the 'Cybearspace' Internet column. She was also a contributing writer for The Teddy Bear Sourcebook. Apart from writing and creating teddy bears, Debbie is passionate aviculturist and nature lover. Her parrot behaviour modification techniques have been cited in many reference works, and her articles on endangered cockatoo breeding and behaviour have appeared in several publications. Debbie makes her home in Lambertville, Michigan, with her husband John, her Irish wolfhound Bubba and some feathered friends.
