A Short introduction containing a lot...By A Customer Starting with a short, precise and interesting history of the subject, Eiran has crammed into a fairly small book, (100pp), a wealth of ideas and information..This book has clear and concise instructional diagrams as far as tying the knots are concerned... the illustrations are comprehensive and not lacking in inspiration... the book as a whole is a sweet introduction to a subject that has huge possibilities.... I would definately recdommend it for first-timers and and as an affectionate look back at the "seventies style" for more advanced practitioners of the art... I have been knotting for about 30 years and am very pleased it's in my library... 'enough said.. :)
