It tells the story (based on real adventures) of a kitten that gets taken on board of a sailing ship, that is teaching a bunch of young men to sail. It takes place around the 1930's, near the end of the time of sailing merchant marine. They have various adventures that mostly have to do with a cats life on deck, with only glancing mention of the boy's presumed adventures.Reading level is probably about 2nd grade, with big fonts and thick pages. Its a good choice for kids (especially boys) who like boats AND animals. I wish it were longer, but the length may make it more manageable for younger readers.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Adorable story of an adventurous cat at sea!By Lisa H.I love tall ships, I love cats - especially the curious and adventurous kind, so I just adored this book. This book is written in an old fashioned but quaint and lovable tone and has matching cutesy and quaint illustrations. Anyone who has any spent time at sea or with an adventurous cat will find this tale instantly relatable. It's adorable!

Joey the ginger cat went to sea with Alan Villiers on the ship Joseph Conrad. He was a kitten of great personality and his story is full of humor. This new edition of a family classic will appeal to children and cat-lovers everywhere.
