10 of 10 people found the following review helpful. Seriously good craft book. By Sarahjane B First of all--really great writing. This book has great instructions for real life--you won't find the instructions void of gravity or mess-making that are so often found on places such as Pinterest. Not everyone can just wave their hands and expect for their craft to come out perfectly on the first try; for some, serious step-by-steps are required! This has just that: a real approach for real people to bring something beautiful into their homes. Second--the photographs are incredible. I'm keeping this book on my coffee table! Buy this book. You will not regret it. 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Excellent tutorials! By hipstersteaparty Nice quality, beautiful photography, and easy to follow steps to make your own wreaths. Several examples shown step by step. 5 Stars! 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Living

Wreaths By Betty Knight Incredible for novice or experienced gardener. Included information on supplies and sources to complete the projects. I Loved this book.

From the simplest herb wreath to more extravagant succulent designs, the strong outlines and shapes of these living wreaths have great visual impact. Bernhisel-Robinson uses step-by-step instructions, an encouraging voice, and gorgeous photographs illustrating her techniques to teach how to make not just a wreath but a modern garden in miniature that changes to become even more beautiful as the plants mature. Includes echeveria, hens and chicks, cactus, moss, strawberry, tomato, herb, lettuce, lavender, and more! Natalie Bernhisel-Robinson has more than fifteen years experience in the floral design world. Her design company, La Fleur, specializes in custom floral design for weddings and special events. Natalie holds a successful holiday wreath-making class each December. She makes her home in Utah with her husband and two children.

This Living Wreaths book challenged me to my core and pushed me well outside my comfort zone. I spent many hours in the fetal position, in my closet, wondering if I could accomplish this goal. Pull off elaborate flower arrangements for a wedding no problem, but write a book!? (Gasp!) I had to keep repeating, I think I can, I think I can, I think I can, and guess what, I did it! I'm so honored to express my gratitude for those who have helped me along the way.
