I've found her designs to be a lot of fun to color, especially those designs which include horses. In her new Christmas book (which is noted as a limited edition), she has a variety of animals in scenes which are inspired by the holidays. The vast majority of the designs are of dogs and horses but there are a few other animals (cats, donkey, etc.) scattered throughout. I like that Ms. Elsharouni leaves a lot of room for me to play with fur techniques, shading, and adding my own elements. I can either color the design as-is, or have fun with adding my own designs into the picture. Either way, it is always a pleasant time coloring her designs of animals. This is what I experienced while coloring in this book and testing the paper with my coloring medium. 30 Animal designs with Holiday/Christmas inspired motifs Printed one side of the page Paper is white, thin, slightly rough and non-perforated typical of CreateSpace published coloring books. Glue Binding Some designs merge into the binding area; however, most do not Book opens fairly flat for ease of coloring Alcohol-based markers bleed through the page quickly. Water-based markers bleed through in spots. Gel pens and India ink pens leave shadows on back of the page. India ink can bleed through if you apply heavily or multiple coats. Coloring Pencils work well with this paper. I found that I could layer the same color for deeper pigment or multiple colors and I could blend easily using a pencils style blending stick. Both wax and oil based pencils worked well with the paper. Hard lead pencils can leave dents through the page. I like to use a blotter when working in the book. I use a page of card stock or several sheets of heavyweight paper under my working page. It keeps seeping ink and marring dents from ruining the pages below. 2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Not really for adults. By Claire Essentially, these are simple drawings of young dogs and horses with snowflakes on or near them. Definitely not for someone accustomed to Johanna Bassford's style. In fact, I found it more suitable for children up to preteen age. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By mom chopsuper fast shipping, love the pics inside to color
