Suggestions for carrying the ideas further - the projects can be done over and over without losing appeal. Recommend for parents and teachers and anyone who wants to bring the wonder of books and art to kids.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. beautifully illustrated, easy to followBy CustomerThis book will get your kids to put down their iPads and pick up the scissors and glue. Colorful, beautifully illustrated, easy to follow, and above all so much FUN! I couldn't recommend it more highly, for children (and adults!) of all ages.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Customergood

Spread the joy and craft of books in your family with Making Books with Kids. An inspiring collection of ideas and projects for encouraging an artistic spirit in children! Making Books with Kids features more than 25 creative, kid-friendly projects in design, illustration, paper decorating, binding techniques and more. Book artist and author Esther K. Smith offers an exciting resource of easy-to-follow instructions supported throughout with step-by-step, full-color photographs and illustrations. Each sequence is accompanied by finished samples and variations as well as the inspiring work of a prominent book artist. Whether you use these projects independently or as a curriculum for hands-on, family-friendly, bookmaking experiences, you'll find that the lessons in this book are open-ended so they can be explored over and over-with different results each time! Colorful photos illustrate how different people using the same lesson will yield different results, exemplifying the way the lesson brings out each artist's personal style. Making Books with Kids is the perfect book for creative families, friends, and community groups and works as lesson plans for both experienced and new art teachers. Children of all ages and experience levels can be guided by adults and will enjoy these engaging exercises. Spread the love of--and craft of--books in your family with Making Books with Kids.

"This is an Official Rave, a fan letter! Esther K. Smith's classic, How to Make Books, has been on my shelf since 2007. Simply put, it's one of the best in its category, book making. I predict that her newest, Making Books with Kids, will join the ranks at that same high level." - Judi Kauffman, Scrapbooking.com Magazine
